

SURPRISING FEATURE OF BRADLEY'S ELECTION

Squire Bill Barrett, Picturesque Character of County Court, Defeated for Re-Election.

(Special to The News)

Cleveland, Aug. 5.—One of the surprising features of the Bradley county election was the defeat of Esquire Bill Barrett, of Charleston, for re-election as justice of the peace.

In every movement of importance that this county has undertaken for these many years the bold and intrepid Bill has always answered "present" when the roll was called.

Soon after his retirement from this office he went into the Bradley county court, and there he has been ever since, with the exception of a short period during the famous ouster proceedings a few years ago.

Ex-Sheriff Bill Barrett is personally known to more people in Bradley county than any other man in it, and is universally well liked.

When the Bradley county court meets the next time it will hardly know itself without Bill Barrett.

ARMY CASUALTIES TO DATE REACH GRAND TOTAL OF 15,913

Washington, Aug. 5.—Army and marine casualties reported from overseas during the week ending today increase 2,147, compared with 1,030 the week before. Total casualties reported are 15,913, including today's army list of 707, the largest number yet reported in a single day, and marine corps list of 10.

While as yet no figures on casualties in the great all-offensive in which American troops are playing so conspicuous a part have been received, the increase in the daily army lists undoubtedly is due in part to this fighting. The increase for the week was 2,147. The marine corps list increased only 46 for the seven days.

In the 15,913 casualties total, including 291 men lost at sea, men killed in action, dead of wounds, disease, accidents and other causes, number 6,410—army men, 5,666; marines, 744. The wounded aggregate 8,412—army men, 7,192; marines, 1,220. The missing, including prisoners, total 791—army men, 713; marines, 78.

The week's increase, deaths from all causes, totaled 917, as compared with 393 the week before. The wounded numbered 390, compared with 591 the previous week, and the missing and prisoners totaled 50, compared with 66 the week before.

The summary of army casualties follows:

Killed in action, including 291 at sea... 2,576
Died of wounds... 944
Died of disease... 1,523
Died of accident and other causes... 623
Wounded in action... 7,192
Missing in action, including prisoners... 713

Total... 13,571

The marine corps casualty summary shows:

Deaths... 744
Wounded... 1,220
In hands of enemy... 5
Missing... 78

Total... 2,042

Late Monday an additional 300 casualties were reported, bringing the grand total to date to 15,913.

AUSTRIA SUFFERS, BUT IS RESIGNED

People's "Spirit Is That of Whipped Dogs," Says Neutral Arrived From Vienna.

(J. C. Segrus, in London Daily News.)

Zurich—A highly placed neutral, who has just returned here from a visit to Vienna, where he was received at the ministry of foreign affairs and the ministry of war, told me that in spite of influential introductions he found that everybody spoke with the utmost reserve of the war.

"The impression I derived," he said, "was that there was a feeling of bitter disappointment at recent events, and that an ardent desire for peace prevailed, but that German influence is too great for their free expression."

He said to one of the foreign office officials that conditions in Austria struck him as shameful. It was surprising, he felt, that the governing classes have tolerated the German domination so long and that the people have supported them without revolt. Hunger and misery are to be seen on every side.

The official replied: "The patience of the people is simply wonderful. The suffering is very great, but the allies are making a vast mistake if they believe they can compel us to surrender through hunger."

A member of the press bureau at the foreign office remarked in an interview: "Things are bad, certainly, but we can hold out. We have put up with a certain amount of humiliation from the Germans, but we need them more, perhaps, than they need us."

This view was also expressed by an Austrian baroness, the wife of an eminent diplomatist. This is, in fact, the prevailing opinion in official circles.

There was considerable talk about the attitude of the emperor and the press toward the Austrian foreign policy. Opinion seems to be divided on that point. A certain amount of sympathy for the emperor was frequently expressed at the foreign office. An official said:

"The emperor and the press are more to be pitied than blamed. The first question the emperor and the press ask in the morning is whether the authorities can keep up the bread allowance for the day. The misery of the people positively appalls them."

"In Vienna," my informant continued, "the misery apparent among the people is very great, but as far as I can judge, their spirit is that of whipped dogs. The German propaganda strongly insists upon the responsibility of British for the hunger and misery prevailing in Austria. This propaganda is very active and successful. The feeling against the English is more bitter now than during my previous visit to Vienna two years ago. On the other hand, the Germans themselves are intensely unpopular, but the people do not dare to speak disrespectfully of their powerful allies."

HER OWN SISTER DIDN'T KNOW HEI

Well and Happy After Three Years' Suffering.

Says She Owes Her Life to Tanlac

Mrs. Morrison Now Doing Her Own Housework—Gained Thirty-Three Pounds.

"I improved so much after taking this Tanlac that my own sister did not know me at first, when I went to visit her."

"I lost my health three years ago and had stomach trouble of the worst kind," she continued. "I also suffered dreadfully from biliousness and constipation. I was feverish and restless most of the time, and never knew what it was to get a good night's rest. I was almost a nervous wreck. I tried dieting and living on liquid foods until I was almost starved, but nothing did me any good."

"I started taking Tanlac, and by the time I had finished my second bottle my appetite had increased until I was able to eat just anything I wanted, had gained thirty-three pounds weight—had gone up from sixty-two to ninety-nine pounds in weight—and was feeling better than a long time. I am now doing all my housework and even some of the washing. I feel that I owe my life to Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Chattanooga exclusively by the Live and Let Live Drug Co.—(Adv.)

HAIR COMING OUT?

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After several applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff.—(Adv.)

Two Marine Corps Deaths

Washington, Aug. 5.—The marine casualty list Sunday showed but two names. They are Private Dan Lockhart, Wallisburg, Utah, killed in action, and Private Reuben Tousey, Cleveland, severely wounded.

Not to Druggists

Price Advance For over a year now we have succeeded in maintaining our old prices, principally by virtue of a big increase in sales, which reduced our overhead costs.

For our fiscal year ending July 1, 1918, our sales amounted to over a million dollars—an increase of 58% over the preceding year.

We had hoped to bridge the war period without a change in prices on

Vick's VapoRub

but we find that our economies do not keep pace with our rising costs. It is with sincere regret, therefore, that we are forced to announce an increase, effective August 1, which will make it necessary to retail VapoRub at 30c, 60c and $1.20

SCHOOL GIRL TELLS OTHERS

How They Can Find Relief From Periodic Sufferings.

Nashua, N. H.—"I am nineteen years old and every month for two years I had such pains that I would often faint and have to leave school. I had such pain I did not know what to do with myself and tried so many remedies that were of no use. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and decided to try it, and that is how I found relief from pain and feel so much better than I use to. When I hear of any girl suffering as I did I tell them how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me."—DELINA MART
